

ARTICLE VI.

General Provisions.

Sec. 1. The members of the general assembly, and all officers, executive and judicial, before they enter on the execution of their respective offices, shall take the following oath or affirmation, to wit: "I solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that I will support the constitution of the United States, and constitution of the state of Alabama, so long as I continue a citizen thereof, and that I will faithfully discharge, to the best of my abilities, the duties of —, according to law: So help me God."

Sec. 2. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or his own confession in open court.

Sec. 3. The general assembly shall have power to pass such penal laws to suppress the evil practice of duelling, extending to disqualification from office or the tenure thereof, as they may deem expedient.

Sec. 4. Every person shall be disqualified from holding any office or place of honor or profit, under the authority of the state, who shall be convicted of having given or offered any bribe to procure his election or appointment.

Sec. 5. Laws shall be made to exclude from office, from suffrage, and from serving as jurors, those who shall hereafter be convicted of bribery, perjury, forgery, or other high crimes or misdemeanors. The privilege of free suffrage shall be supported by laws regulating elections, and prohibiting, under adequate penalties, all undue influence thereon, from power, bribery, tumult, or other improper conduct.

Sec. 6. In all elections by the general assembly, the members thereof shall vote viva voce, and the votes shall be entered on the journals.

Sec. 7. No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of an appropriation made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public moneys shall be published annually.

Sec. 8. All lands liable to taxation in this state, shall be taxed in proportion to their value.

Sec. 9. The general assembly shall direct, by law, in what manner, and in what courts, suits may be brought against the state.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the general assembly to regulate, by law, the cases in which deductions shall be made from the salaries of public officers, for neglect of duty in their official capacities, and the amount of such deduction.

Sec. 11. Absence on business of this state, or of the United States, or on a visit, or necessary private business, shall not cause a forfeiture of a residence once obtained.

Sec. 12. No member of congress, nor any person holding any office of profit or trust under the United States, (the office of postmaster excepted,) or either of them, or any foreign power, shall hold or exercise any office of profit under this state.

Sec. 13. Divorces from the bonds of matrimony shall not be granted but in cases provided for by law, by suit in chancery: and no
