

INDEX.

ABANDONMENT.

- By husband or wife for three years, shall entitle other party to divorce, 170 § 3
 By husband for any length of time, and living in adultery with another woman, entitles wife to divorce, ib. ib.
 By husband or wife for five years, (not known to be living,) exempts other party from penalties of second marriage, 432 § 5

ABATEMENT.

- When cause of action survives, suit not to abate by death of plaintiff or defendant, but executor or administrator may be made a party, 313 § 1
 Action of trover survives for and against executors and administrators, ib. § 2
 Suits brought for use of another not to abate by death of nominal plaintiff, ib. § 3
 When one or more of several joint plaintiffs or defendants die, if cause of action survive, death may be suggested on record, and suit proceed for or against survivors, 314 § 4
 Where one dies, pending writ of ad quod damnum, his executor or administrator may, on motion, revive proceedings, ib. § 5
 Trespass quare clausum fregit, and for injury to personal property, may be revived by plaintiffs' representatives as actions on contracts, ib. § 6
 Suits commenced by feme sole not to abate by marriage, if husband make himself a party, ib. § 7
 On marriage of feme sole defendant, husband may be made party by sci. ib. § 8
 Suit commenced by administrator ad colligendum not to abate by appointment of administrator in chief, but to progress for his benefit, 222 § 8
 On death of executor or administrator, suit shall continue for or against their successors, 227 § 30
 Process issued or executed irregularly, may be abated by plea, 335 § 123

ABATEMENT, PLEAS OF.

- Must be sworn to, unless their truth otherwise appear, 332 § 110
 On plea overruled, plaintiff entitled to full costs up to the time, 333 § 111
 To array of grand jury or any member, not allowed after term at which indictment is found, 458 § 51
 If decided in favor of accused, court not to discharge, ib. ib.