

COURTS—COUNTY COURT—Continued.

May issue attachments and other writs necessary to enforce its orders and decrees, 305 § 49

Rules of practice in Mobile, ib. § 50

COURTS, SUPERIOR—See "Circuit Court."

COURT-HOUSE—See "County Buildings."

COVENANT.

What words in a deed amount to an express covenant, 156 § 31

Joint covenants construed as joint and several, 323 § 61

CREDITORS.

Of insolvent debtors, entitled to proceeds of their estates, after sale, 274 § 3

Of insolvent estates entitled to ratable distribution, 192 § 2

Of deceased persons, shall exhibit their claims within eighteen months after the grant of letters testamentary or of administration, 195 § 17

Of counties, shall present and substantiate their claims within twelve months, 142 § 2

Creditors, residing out of the county, shall appoint an agent in the county for giving and receiving notices, and for receiving money from the sheriff, 217 § 82

Judgment creditor of an estate, may subject lands to sale by scire facias, in certain cases, 197 § 27

How creditors may be required by securities to commence suit, 532 § 6

Creditor, whose debt is secured by will, may be a subscribing witness, 598 § 9

CRIMINAL CASES.

Preliminary proceedings in, 445-50

CRIM. CON.

By circumvention, 414 § 15

CROP.

To be assets in the hands of executors and administrators, 196 § 19

Of testator or intestate may be disposed of at private sale by order of court, 224 § 15

Growing crop not to be levied on by execution, 210 § 46

Raised on rented lands not to be taken by execution or removed until one year's rent is tendered, 506 § 3

If crop be growing at the time of recovery in ejectment or trespass to try titles, jury shall assess rent until it can be gathered, defendant entering into bond, 319 § 41

CRUELTY.

Cruel punishments not to be inflicted, 395 § 5

Masters inflicting cruel punishment on slaves, liable to fine, &c., 431 § 1

By husband, shall entitle wife to divorce from the bonds of matrimony, 170 § 3

For extreme cruelty in either party, divorces may be granted from bed and board, 171 § 19

CURTESY.

Husband may recover curtesy in estates for use, 157 § 36

DAMAGES—See "Inquiry of Damages."

On writ of error or appeal to supreme court, where judgment is suspended, ten per cent. 309 § 20

On writ of error or appeal from county to circuit court, ten per cent., 311 § 28