

DIVORCES—Continued.

- Collusive adultery insufficient, 171 § 12
- Applicant for divorce, to proceed by bill in equity in the chancery court, 170 § 4
- Complainant must have resided in the state three years, 171 § 18
- Non-resident defendants to be notified, 170 § 5
- Defendant may answer without oath, ib. § 6
- Bill not to be taken pro confesso, nor decree rendered without proof, ib. ib.
- Confessions of the parties not evidence, 171 § 16
- What will bar a divorce, ib. § 14, 15
- Court, pronouncing decree for divorce, shall also decree an equitable division of the estate, 170 § 8
- Record of proceedings and decree, to be laid before the legislature, how, 171 § 10
- Offending party not released by the decree, and penalty for marrying, 170 § 7. 171 § 17
- Parties cohabiting after divorce for cause of adultery, how punished, 171 § 13
- From bed and board, for what causes, and how allowed, ib. § 19
- Decree of divorce from bed and board, final, ib. ib.
- On separation of parents, court may assign children to either, ib. § 20, 21

DOCKETS.

- Of causes, how kept, &c. 318 § 35
- Clerk of county court shall keep a docket of all proceedings in vacation, in relation to executors, administrators, guardians, &c. 301 § 23
- Execution docket, how kept, and what to specify, 144 § 8
- Clerk of circuit court to keep separate dockets of civil and criminal cases, in which witnesses may be summoned, and set them on days of trial, 319 § 40
- Clerk shall keep a regular subpoena docket, 318 § 35
- Clerk shall enter returns of executions in the docket, in three days after they are made, or be liable to a motion, 144 § 9
- Clerk shall keep execution docket on clerk's table whole term, 145 § 10
- Penalty for neglect, ib. ib.

DOGS.

- Slaves not allowed to keep dogs, and penalty on masters for permitting, 542 § 16

DOWER.

- Feme covert* under twenty-one years of age, may convey away her dower, 174 § 9
- Allowed in estates for use, 157 § 36
- Allowed in lands to which the title is incomplete, 173 § 8
- Of what the widow shall be endowed generally, 172-3 § 3, 4
- Her share of the personal estate to be allotted by sheriff and commissioners, 173 § 5
- Feme covert* joining with her husband in a deed, under certain circumstances, may bar dower, 174 § 10
- Dower may be relinquished by non-resident feme covert by notary public, or judge of the state in which she resides, ib. § 11