

1819. Governor to draw money out of treasury for transporting arms. for the transporting the quota of arms made by the general government, and for procuring some place to deposit the same, until called for by the state of Tennessee or until the militia is called into service, whose receipt shall be a good voucher for the treasurer in the settlement of his accounts.

Whereas it may happen, that one or more judges of the courts of appeals, may be so situated, that he or they cannot sit on a cause or causes therein, and whereas a difference of opinion may exist between the two judges sitting; therefore,

1817, ch. 199, and acts referred to. 15. Be it enacted, That when any such case may happen, it shall be the duty of the Governor, to commission some person fit and learned in the law, to sit with the said judge or judges and with them determine such case or suit either in law or equity.

---

CHAP. 201. An Act for the benefit of Keeble Terry.

---

CHAP. 202. An Act to divorce Polly T. Depriest from her husband Charles C. Depriest.

---

CHAP. 203. An Act to authorise John Brown to build a mill on Duck river.

---

CHAP. 204. An Act to lay off and establish a town in the county of Warren, on the Caney Fork of Cumberland river. (Passed November 25, 1819.)

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Tennessee, That it shall and may be lawful for the commissioners hereinafter named, to lay off and establish a town in the county of Warren, on the Caney fork of Cumberland river, on the lands of Thomas Burgess; which town shall be laid off under the directions and superintendence of Thomas Denham, John Martin, Abraham Cantrell, Andrew Robertson and Anthony Pate, who are hereby appointed commissioners of said town and vested with full power, a majority of them being present, to pass such bye laws for the regulation of said town, as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state.

2. Be it enacted, That said commissioners be authorized to accept a deed in fee simple, for twenty acres of land of the said Thomas Burgess, and to lay it off into convenient lots, with convenient streets and alleys, and to make deeds for said lots, to the purchasers.

3. Be it enacted, That said lots within one year after the sale thereof, be liable to pay taxes as other town lots are, and said town, shall be known by the name of Chismsburg,